DATE : OCTOBER 16, 2006

P.C.

1. The learned Associate Advocate General for Respondent Nos. 1 to 3 submitted that the last date of admission was 16th August, 2006 and in this view of the matter, the Petitioner's approval having come later, no students could be admitted therein. The learned Counsel for the Petitioner, however, argued that the Petitioner's College was situated in a remote rural area and as the compliance report had been submitted by the Petitioner late by only 2 days some relief should be granted to the Petitioner. We are unable to accept this submission. The last date for admission was 16th August, 2006 and this Court has already held that no admission should be made thereafter. The learned Counsel for the Petitioner pointed out that in some similar matter orders have been sought from the Hon'ble Supreme Court. We accordingly give liberty that in case some orders are received in connected matters which help the Petitioner, it will be at liberty to come to this Court again to seek a modification of this order. With these observations, the Petition is dismissed.
